

Ram Gram

September 1, 2011

STUDENT COUNCIL

Congratulations to the following students who will serve on Student Council this year:

Homeroom Representatives

5M	Nick Folz
5S	Nicole Niesen
6D	Jonathan Shafer
6K	Maria Sermersheim
7G	Frank Durchholz
7H	Lucy Walsh
8C	Sela Betz
8G	Mary Blanke

At Large members include:

Gr. 5	Sarah Fruit
Gr. 6	Carlie Elpers Drew Hart
Gr. 7	Max Schulte
Gr. 8	Will Durchholz Samantha Puckett Lizzy Purdue Cole Rahman Jacob Shafer John Paul Thomas

Student Council advisors are Mr. Matt Carey, Mrs. Shari Hirsch, and Mr. Joe Mayer.

PTO MEETING

Mark you calendar and plan to attend the first PTO meeting in September 15 at 6:30. Babysitting will be available. Please call the school office (476-4477) with your reservation. Mr. Schuler needs these numbers to provide ample helpers.

YOUTH PROTECTION

If you have completed the initial Youth Protection Training but have not signed off on the yearly review, you can find the form on the website Back to School homepage. Print off, read, sign, and return to the Good Shepherd Youth Protection coordinator, Mark Schuler. Thank you!

STAFF DEVELOPMENT DAY

NO SCHOOL

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2

Have a great Labor Day weekend!

RACE for the CURE

Saturday, September 24
Downtown Evansville

A team is being formed in memory of Elizabeth Murray

Information for registering for the GSS team is in this week's Thursday Envelope.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Congratulations to eighth grader, Emmalee Wilson, for being selected to be a member of the 2011-2012 Evansville Philharmonic Youth Orchestra. Emmalee plays the flute.

ALUMINUM CANS

Thank you to everyone who donates aluminum cans. The last trailer load brought $153.33 to the eighth grade treasury. This money helps fund the class trip in May.

YOUTH CHOIR

Singing at the 10:30 Mass
Sunday, September 11

Special thanks to the music directors:
Miss Anna Michel and Mr. Mark Schmitz

GRANDPARENTS' and GRAND FRIENDS' DAY

Mark you calendar
Friday, October 14

"All Are Welcome"